Family Space Coordinator; Community Programs & Services

Hey you! Elizabeth is looking for you!

Elizabeth Fry heard you like to help people and use your captivating personality and skills to make life better for others!

Elizabeth Fry is looking for you to join our dynamic Community Programs & Services Team, as the Family Space Coordinator.

Job Summary

This position gives the successful candidate the opportunity to develop and implement the new Family Space Program.

E Fry Family Space is designed to remove inter-sectional barriers such as poverty, disability, addiction, mental health, discrimination, experiences of violence and trauma and lack of housing; to decrease social isolation of women and to support them to reintegrate and develop healthy relationships with their child(ren). The above barriers can exclude women from having access to their child(ren); creating an additional layer of isolation that the women experience. E Fry Family Space will create that safe space that is needed for women to begin to integrate back with their families while simultaneously addressing their individual needs. E Fry Family Space is an inclusive program with a priority given to women exiting the justice system and who may be isolated from their child(ren).

Work is performed within the context of the policies and framework of the Elizabeth Fry of Ottawa corporate culture as embodied in the Mission Statement and Core Values
