Residential Relief Worker

The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa is a not-for-profit, feminist community agency offering programs and services to women and men in conflict with the law. Our array of programming includes two residences for criminalized women, both staffed 24/7, 365 days a year. Lotus House is E Fry Ottawa's bail residence for women, offering up to twelve women a supportive living environment with accommodations released on bail and awaiting their court date. JF Norwood House is a supportive residence for up to fifteen women transitioning to the community from federal prisons or provincial jail. The Residential Relief Worker fills in for permanent residential staff as required and is an important position in our unionized organization.

Job title: Residential Relief Worker
Reports to: Manager, Residential Services (Lotus House, JF Norwood House)
Hours: 16.5 hours/month (minimum) including one overnight shift (minimum)
