Housing Based Case Manager

The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa is a not-for-profit, feminist community agency offering programs and services to women and men in conflict with the law. Our programs and services aimed at reducing homelessness include providing housing-based case management services to women, transgender, non-binary and two-spirit people with moderate to high needs who are in the process of reintegrating to the community following a period of imprisonment. The Housing Based Case Manager (HBCM) is a full-time position in a unionized organization.

Job title: Housing Based Case Manager
Reports to: Manager, Community Programs and Services
Hours: 37.5 hours/week
Language: English Essential (Bilingual Preferred)
Salary: $21.08/ plus benefits

Core Responsibilities

Our Housing Based Case Manager provides comprehensive housing-based case management services to support moderate to high acuity women, transgender, non-binary and two-spirit people who are in the process of being discharged from the Ottawa-Carleton Detention Centre (OCDC) to become housed and to promote sustainable improved quality of life by facilitating timely access to community resources to support housing stability and long-term housing retention. This position requires mostly daytime work with some evening and weekend on-call services required.

Intake and Assessment

- Identify clients through in-reach activities at Ottawa-Carleton Detention Centre (OCDC) and assess for HBCM services using a Justice Discharged VI-SPDAT (JD VI-SPDAT) as well as through case-conferencing with OCDC discharge planners
- Liaise with the City's Housing First Data Coordinator to identify and prioritize clients that meet Housing First eligibility criteria
- Administer agency intake and assessment tools as required to support clients

Release/Discharge and Housing Procurement Support

- Prior to client release from OCDC, arrange for emergency shelter or other interim housing to support permanent housing search
- On client release, arrange required appointments with client pertaining to income benefits, transportation needs and identification needs

- Assist clients by arranging viewings, speaking to landlords, choosing housing, and assisting with move-in arrangements, including the procurement of furniture

Providing Ongoing Supports

- Assist clients to access resources in the community to support their tenancy, promote healthy living/lifestyles or provide long-term support, if required, including making connections to the LGBTQ2+ and Indigenous community
- Support clients to maintain their housing unit in good order by monitoring level of cleanliness, teaching and reinforcing life skills, and referring to community supports
- Help clients prepare a monthly budget, a weekly calendar of meaningful things to do, a personal guest policy, a risk minimization plan and crisis plan
- Monitor support service plans, over time decreasing and eventually withdrawing HBCM supports according to client choice/needs
- Complete SPDAT assessments at regular intervals to measure changes in acuity, document client progress, change/refine case plan and determine whether client capacity to maintain permanent housing is increasing
- Assist clients to resolve issues that may put their tenancy at risk
- Support clients through the eviction process, if necessary, drawing on resources available in the community
- Support clients who need to be re-housed to select, rent, and move into new housing, with the assistance of the Housing Locator's inventory. Refer and link clients to other resources that could further support housing retention
- Assist clients to access employment, educational and volunteer opportunities that promote self-sufficiency, independence, and community integration

Discharge or Exit Planning from HBCM Services

- Develop a comprehensive client discharge plan to address ongoing support needs, crisis contact information, and additional resources
- Complete final SPDAT, and in conjunction with the client, implement strategies to build on the client's strengths/assets and address areas posing a risk to housing

Other Responsibilities

The HBCM will work collaboratively with the John Howard Society of Ottawa and other community agencies using a housing-first model to share information, problem solve, identify emergency issues, analyze data, and coordinate services. The position requires ongoing reporting on performance measurements as required by the funder (City of Ottawa) and E Fry Ottawa. Additional duties may be assigned by the Manager, Community Programs and Services. All E Fry Ottawa staff are responsible for promoting and delivering on the mission, vision, and values of our organization.

Qualifications

Required Education and Experience

- Experience and/or education equivalent to a post-secondary degree in social work, criminal justice, or a related field
