INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of:
The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa

Qualified Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa, which comprise the statement of financial position as at March 31, 2023, and the statement of operations, statement of changes in net assets and cash flows statement for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, except for the possible effects of the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion section of our report, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa as at March 31, 2023, and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Basis for Qualified Opinion

In common with many not-for-profit organizations, The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa derives revenue from fundraising and donations, the completeness of which is not susceptible to satisfactory audit verification. Accordingly, verification of these revenues was limited to the amounts recorded in the records of The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa. Therefore, we were not able to determine whether any adjustments might be necessary to fundraising or donation revenue, excess of revenues over expenses, cash flows from operations and net assets for both March 31, 2023 and the previous year.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the entity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in Canada, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our qualified audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Entity's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high-level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements. As part of an audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted audit standards, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal controls.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Entity's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Entity to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a matter that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

NOTES TO AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED MARCH 31, 2023

1. PURPOSE OF THE ORGANIZATION

The Elizabeth Fry Society of Ottawa (the Society) offers assistance to women who are, or may be, at risk of coming into conflict with the law. The Society offers programs and services to provide women with confidential and supportive living and learning environments.

The Society is incorporated under Part II of the Canada Corporations Act as a not-for-profit corporation without share capital and is registered as a charity under the Income Tax Act, and as such, is not subject to income tax.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements were prepared in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations and include the following significant accounting policies:

a) Revenue recognition

The Society follows the deferral method of accounting for revenues. Restricted revenues are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable, if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured. Contributions received for the purchase of capital assets are deferred and amortized into revenue on the same basis as amortization of the related assets.

b) Internally- restricted net assets

During the 2011 year, the Board approved that previous funds internally-restricted for training and education activities be transferred to an internally-restricted fund for the cost of acquisition of a new JFN facility.

c) Short-term investments

Short-term investments are recorded at fair value at each reporting date, with gains and losses, both realized and unrealized, recognized in the statement of revenue and expenditures.

d) Capital assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost, and the half-year rule applies in the first year that the asset is purchased. Amortization is provided on the straight- line basis as follows:

Furniture & equipment	5 years
Leasehold improvements	5 years

e) Donated services

Volunteers may donate their services throughout the year to assist the Society in carrying out its activities. Because the value of these activities is not readily determinable on an objective basis of financial measurement, no amount has been reflected in the financial statements.

f) Financial instruments

The Society's financial assets and financial liabilities are recorded at fair market value. Changes in fair value, both realized and unrealized, are recognized in the statement of revenue and expenses.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

g) Estimates and assumptions

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results may differ from those estimates. These estimates are reviewed annually and as adjustments become necessary, they are recognized in the financial statements in the period they become known.

h) Allocation of expenses

The Society engages in programs consistent with its organizational mission. The costs of each program include the costs of personnel, premises and other expenses that are directly related to providing the program.

The Society incurs fundraising and administration expenses that are common to each of its programs - including fundraising expenses, corporate governance, general management and general support. These expenses are allocated to each program area on an appropriate basis and consistently each year.

i) United Way of Ottawa funding

The Society is a member of, and receives funding from, the United Way of Ottawa. Under their arrangement, any deficit for the year may be received or any surplus may be required to be repaid.

As potential adjustments to annual funding are not known until financial statements are prepared, any such amounts are reflected as adjustments to revenue in the year which they are determined.

3. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying values of cash, short-term investments, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximate their fair value due to the relatively short periods to maturity of the instruments. It is management's opinion that the Society is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risks arising from these financial instruments.

4. SHORT-TERM INVESTMENTS

Short-term investments are valued at fair value and consist of six cashable guaranteed investment certificates, money market funds, and common stocks, in a mix of approximately 64.9%, 32.2%, and 2.9% respectively. Interest rates on the GICs range from 3.78% to 5.13%.

5. CAPITAL ASSETS

8. COMMITMENTS AND GUARANTEES

a) Commitments

The Society renewed their property lease agreement on October 2022, which included an increase for additional space. The annual payment is approximately $104,715 per year. However, it should be noted that the lease may be terminated with 90 days notice.

The Society has entered into a lease agreement pertaining to the new Bail House Project on an ongoing basis, with termination available with 6 months' notice. Monthly payments resulting from this agreement are $2,175.

The Society has entered into a lease agreement pertaining to the new Safe Bridge Project for a term to September 2023. The minimum amount owing for the 2024 fiscal year is $19,200.

The Society has a contract for counselling services for a term to December 31, 2023. The minimum amount owing for the 2024 fiscal year is $13,500.

b) Guarantees

In the normal course of business, the Society has entered into lease transactions for premises and office equipment. It is common in such commercial lease transactions for the Society, as the lessee, to agree to indemnify the lessor for liabilities that may arise from the use of the leased assets. The maximum amount potentially payable under the foregoing indemnities cannot be reasonably estimated. The Society has liability insurance that relates to the indemnifications described above.

9. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

Currency risk

The Society's functional currency is the Canadian dollar. The Society does not enter into foreign currency transactions and does not use foreign exchange forward contracts.

Interest rate risk

The Society is exposed to interest rate risk with regard to its cash and short-term investments. The Society has no interest-bearing liability. Fluctuations in market rates of interest on cash do not have a significant impact on the Society's results of operations. Balanced mutual fund units are not exposed to significant interest rate risk due to their limited exposure to long-term securities.

10. CITY OF OTTAWA - HOUSING SUPPORT PROGRAM

The Society entered into a contribution agreement with the City of Ottawa whereby funding of $114,913 ($91,011 in 2021-22) has been provided for the Housing Support Program project. The project is subject to the terms and conditions of the agreement.

REVIEW ENGAGEMENT REPORT

To the Ministry of the Attorney General:

We have reviewed the schedules of revenues and expense of the Direct Accountability Program and the Bail Verification and Supervision Program for the year ended March 31, 2023. Our review was made in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements and accordingly consisted primarily of enquiry, analytical procedures and discussion related to information supplied to us by the organization.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Practitioner's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying schedules of revenues and expense based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review of schedules of revenues and expense in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on these schedules of revenues and expense.
